How to Get Free VoIP Service

To most people, the best things in life are free, and the same goes for the best VoIP service. There is the option of getting a free VoIP service, and you just need to know how to go about it and where to look.

Know that if you are on a quest to find a free VoIP service, you will quickly learn a harsh reality, which is that the term free is quite subjective. Even if a service provider lists their VoIP service as being free, more than likely there are going to be at least some costs involved.

After all, in the end you are at least still going to have to pay for your Internet costs and so there is no way that the service will be entirely free. To help you out, here are a few of the top free VoIP service providers and the pros and cons to each.

Skype

Skype is by far one of the most popular free VoIP service providers in the world. One of the biggest advantages to Skype is their reputation, and they are a service that, when used in a specific way, will be completely free to you. The software is easy to download which is another benefit, so even if you have little to no computer experience you should find it easy.

There are a few downfalls however, such as the fact that the free feature is only available when you are calling from one computer to another, and so if you want to call from your computer to a landline phone there will be costs incurred.

Raketu

This is another of the top free VoIP service providers available today. This is a hip site, one that combines state-of-the-art communications with the networking style of MySpace and YouTube. Very easy to use and navigate through this is definitely one of the VoIP providers you should have at the top of your list, one that you should take very seriously into consideration.

However, although seemingly perfect, there are some details that are not so great. For instance, you will be required to make a deposit of $9.95 into your account when you are registering with the company before you will be able to start making free calls. Just think of it as being a type of insurance, in case you want to make a call to a location that is not covered by your free plan.
