This year John Kricfalusi returned to a genre he essentially created - online, direct-sponsor cartoons. It began in 1997 with George Liquor furiously urging us to buy albums at Tower Records, and today we can watch his new online shorts for Raketu, the VOIP provider. But we'll get to all of that later on. First, let's see how this TV animation visionary ended up as a Flash animation pioneer. The contributions John Kricfalusi, or John K as he's come to be known, has given the world of animation are numerous - The Ren and Stimpy Show, his work on the revival series
